

THIS DOCUMENT IS IMPORTANT AND REQUIRES YOUR IMMEDIATE ATTENTION. If you are in any doubt about this document or as to the action you should take, you should consult a stockbroker, solicitor, accountant or other appropriate independent professional adviser. This advice is personal to the registered holder(s) named below and is not transferable. A general outline of the tax consequences in the UK and overseas is provided in the Shareholder Information section of the current HSBC Holdings plc's Annual Report and Accounts. Shareholders should consult their own tax advisers with regard to their liability to taxation. No tax is currently withheld from dividends paid by HSBC Holdings plc.

This dividend currency election form is only applicable for Hong Kong Overseas Branch registered shareholder(s) of HSBC Holdings plc, who own paper share certificate(s) issued in his/her own name(s).

Non-registered shareholders who wish to change their banking instruction or dividend currency election preference should contact and instruct their relevant intermediary such as banks, brokers, custodians, nominees or HKSCC Nominees Limited through which their shares are held.

Dividend Currency Election Form

The default currency on the Hong Kong Overseas Branch Register is Hong Kong dollars and can also be paid in United States dollars or sterling, or a combination of these currencies. You can change your dividend currency election by completing this form.

The Registrar can arrange for direct credit of Hong Kong dollar cash dividends into your bank account. They can also arrange to send US dollar and/or sterling cheques to the credit of your bank account. You may register or change your banking instructions through the Registrar's Investor Centre at www.investorcentre.com/hk. Before using this facility, you will need to register with Investor Centre. You should register without delay so that the formalities can be completed in time for you to give your instruction for future dividends (please refer to www.hsbc.com for dividend deadline dates).

If you wish to change the currency of your whole dividend, please complete the "one currency election" section overleaf.
