HSBC Bank plc – Base Prospectus Supplement/2

purposes of section 87G of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the "FSMA"). Terms defined in any of the Base Prospectuses shall have the same meaning when used in this Base Prospectus Supplement.

To the extent that there is any inconsistency between any statement in this Base Prospectus Supplement and any other statement in, or incorporated by reference in, any of the Base Prospectuses, the statements in this Base Prospectus Supplement will prevail.

The purpose of this Base Prospectus Supplement is to disclose the following additional information regarding certain litigation:

As previously disclosed, proceedings concerning Bernard L. Madoff and Madoff Securities have been brought by various plaintiffs in several jurisdictions against HSBC companies, including the Bank. In December 2010, the Madoff Securities trustee commenced suits against various HSBC companies in the US bankruptcy court and the English High Court. The US action seeks US$9 billion in damages and additional recoveries from HSBC and various co-defendants. It seeks damages against HSBC for allegedly aiding and abetting Madoff's fraud and breach of fiduciary duty, as well as recovery of unspecified amounts received by HSBC from the funds invested with Madoff and fees earned by HSBC for providing the custodial, administration and similar services. The trustee's English action seeks recovery of unspecified transfers of money from Madoff Securities to or through HSBC, on the ground that the HSBC defendants actually or constructively knew of Madoff's fraud. In addition, between October 2009 and July 2010, Fairfield Sentry Limited and Fairfield Sigma Limited ("Fairfield"), funds whose assets were directly or indirectly invested with Madoff Securities, commenced multiple suits in the British Virgin Islands and the US against numerous fund shareholders, including various HSBC companies, which acted as nominees for clients of HSBC's private banking business who invested in the Fairfield funds. The Fairfield actions seek restitution of amounts paid to the defendants in connection with share redemptions, on the ground that such payments were made by mistake, based on inflated net asset values resulting from Madoff's fraud.

The cases where HSBC companies, including the Bank, are named as a defendant are at an early stage. HSBC is unable reliably to estimate the aggregate liability, if any, that might arise as a result of all such claims. In any event, HSBC considers that it has good defences to these claims and will continue to defend them vigorously.

Save as disclosed in this Base Prospectus Supplement and in any prior supplements to any of the Base Prospectuses, no significant new factor, material mistake or inaccuracy relating to information included in the Base Prospectuses has arisen since the publication of the Base Prospectuses.

Investors should be aware of their rights under Section 87Q(4) of the FSMA.

The Bank accepts responsibility for the information contained in this Base Prospectus Supplement. To the best of the knowledge and belief of the Bank (which has taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case) the information contained in this Base Prospectus Supplement is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information.
