CHANGE OF AUDITOR

The Board of HSBC Holdings plc ('HSBC' or 'the Group') announces its intention to appoint PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ('PwC') as its auditor for the year ending 31 December 2015.

This follows a competitive tender process actively overseen by the HSBC Group Audit Committee, as referred to in HSBC's 2012 Annual Report & Accounts published on 4 March 2013, resulting in a recommendation which was endorsed by the Board of HSBC at a meeting earlier today.

KPMG Audit plc ('KPMG'), the Group's current auditor, will continue in the role and will undertake the audit of the Group's consolidated accounts for the year ending 31 December 2013, having been reappointed at the 2013 Annual General Meeting. Subject to shareholders' approval of their reappointment at the May 2014 Annual General Meeting, KPMG will also undertake the audit of the Group's consolidated accounts for the year to 31 December 2014 in order to facilitate a smooth transition. Following finalisation of the terms of their engagement, the appointment of PwC will be recommended to shareholders for approval at the 2015 Annual General Meeting.

Commenting on the change, John Coombe, Chairman of the Group Audit Committee, said: "KPMG has been the Group's auditor since 1991. On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank them for the professionalism and care they have demonstrated in their external audit role over many years.

"The tender process was both comprehensive and thorough, culminating in a recommendation by the Group Audit Committee to the Board for the appointment of PwC for the audit of the consolidated accounts from 2015. We look forward to a constructive and professional relationship with PwC in support of the Group Audit Committee's responsibility for oversight over the integrity of financial reporting."
