DIRECTORATE CHANGE

James B Comey, Jr., an independent non-executive Director of HSBC Holdings plc ('HSBC'), has resigned from the Board with effect from 4 September 2013, following his confirmation by the US Senate as the next Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Mr Comey was nominated for that post by President Barack Obama in June 2013.

Mr Comey was appointed to the HSBC Board on 4 March 2013 and served on the Financial System Vulnerabilities Committee.

Commenting on Mr Comey's resignation, HSBC Group Chairman Douglas Flint said: "On behalf of the Board, I warmly congratulate Jim on his appointment as Director of the FBI. The appointment reflects his expertise and the esteem in which he is held. We are sad to lose Jim's wise counsel and are grateful to him for the contribution he has made to HSBC in his brief time as a non-executive Director and member of the Financial System Vulnerabilities Committee. We wish him the very best with his appointment to this important role."

There are no matters relating to the resignation of Mr Comey that need to be brought to the attention of the shareholders of the Company.

For and on behalf of
HSBC Holdings plc
