HEIDI MILLER JOINS HSBC BOARD

Heidi Miller (61), former President of International at JPMorgan Chase & Co., has been appointed as an independent non-executive Director of HSBC Holdings plc with effect from 1 September 2014. She will become a member of the Group Risk Committee and the Conduct & Values Committee.

Heidi was President of International at JPMorgan Chase & Co. from 2010 to 2012, with responsibility for leading the bank's global expansion and international business strategy across the Investment Bank, Asset Management, and Treasury & Securities Services divisions. Prior to this, she ran the Treasury & Securities Services division of JPMorgan Chase & Co. for six years. Other former roles include Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Bank One Corporation (2002-2004), Senior Executive Vice President of Priceline.com Inc. (2000-2001) and Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Citigroup Inc. (1998-2000).

Commenting on the appointment, HSBC Group Chairman Douglas Flint said: "Heidi has extensive international banking and finance experience and in a career spanning over 30 years in some of the largest and most complex banking organisations, she has built a formidable depth of expertise and hands on management capability. Her profile and her experience of US and international markets will be of considerable value to the Board and to the committees that she will join."

Heidi Miller's appointment will be for an initial three-year term which, subject to re-election by shareholders, will expire at the conclusion of the 2018 Annual General Meeting. The Directors have determined that Heidi Miller is independent. In making that determination the Directors concluded that there are no relationships or circumstances which are likely to affect her judgement and any relationships or circumstances which could appear to do so were not considered to be material.
