PHILLIP AMEEN JOINS HSBC BOARD

HSBC Holdings plc has today announced the appointment of Phillip David Ameen (66), as an independent non-executive Director. The appointment will take effect from 1 January 2015. Mr Ameen will become a member of the Group Audit Committee at the same time.

Phillip (Phil) Ameen was formerly Vice President, Comptroller and Principal Accounting Officer of General Electric Corp (GE). A Certified Public Accountant, Mr Ameen started his career at Peat Marwick Mitchell & Co (now KPMG) rising to be a technical audit partner in the firm's Executive Office. He left the firm in 1985 to join GE, initially at GE Capital in Stamford. Latterly he moved to GE's headquarters staff in Fairfield, ultimately becoming Comptroller, where until 2008 he led a team of approximately 2,000 accountants responsible for all of GE's accounting and external reporting. He retired from GE in 2009.

Mr Ameen has extensive experience in accounting standards setting and reporting. He served on the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee of the International Accounting Standards Board, the Accounting Standards Executive Committee of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, was the longest-serving member of the Financial Accounting Standards Board Emerging Issues Task Force and was Chair of the Committee on Corporate Reporting of Financial Executives International. He has also served as Trustee of the Financial Accounting Foundation Inc.

Mr Ameen joined the Board of HSBC North America Holdings Inc. (HNAH) in April 2012 and chairs its Audit Committee and serves on its Risk Committee. He is also on the Boards of the principal subsidiaries of HNAH, chairing their audit committees and serving on their risk committees.

Commenting on the appointment, HSBC Group Chairman Douglas Flint said: “I am delighted to welcome Phil to the Board of HSBC Holdings plc. He brings with him extensive financial and accounting experience gained in one of the world’s leading international companies as well as a depth of technical knowledge from his participation in the standard setting world. His experience of HSBC’s US businesses will add further detailed insight to Group Board discussions and enhance the strong links that already exist between the Group Board and its major subsidiaries.”

Phil Ameen’s appointment will be for an initial three-year term which, subject to re-election by shareholders, will expire at the conclusion of the 2018 Annual General Meeting. The Directors have determined that Phil Ameen is independent. In making that determination the Directors concluded that, taking into account his existing non-executive roles with the US businesses, there are no other relationships or circumstances which are likely to affect his judgement and any relationships or circumstances which could appear to do so were not considered to be material.
